MACWORLD INTRODUCES “MAC OS X HINTS, LEOPARD EDITION”

In-depth guide on all the tips and tricks for the Mac OS X Leopard operating system is available now.

SAN FRANCISCO, CA—April 1, 2008—Macworld, the world’s foremost authority on Apple’s revolutionary products, announced the release of “Mac OS X Hints, Leopard Edition,” the latest addition to its popular Superguide series. Macworld Senior Editor Rob Griffiths, also the founder and editor of Macworld’s popular community-driven MacOSXHints.com Web site, has compiled the very best tips and advice available for the latest version of Mac OS X into a single book. Available in three formats, “Mac OS X Hints, Leopard Edition” can be downloaded immediately as a PDF for $12.95, or purchased as a CD-ROM for $15.00 or full-color book for $24.99 (price for CD-ROM and book includes shipping and handling). All versions are available now at: <http://www.macworld.com/2785>.

“Mac OS X is a rich operating system that’s full of amazing features and secret settings that aren’t obvious at first glance,” said Jason Snell, VP/Editorial Director of Macworld. “And there’s nobody better than Rob Griffiths to detail all the best tips and tricks available in Leopard. Thanks to the knowledge of Macworld’s editors and the incredible resource of the Mac OS X Hints community, this is a great collection of tips, all updated and verified as completely Leopard-compatible.”

The book covers everything from the basics such as customizing system preferences and setting printing options to more complex topics including learning all the tricks and secrets of Terminal, Mac OS X’s application that allows users to interact with the computer through a command-line interface. This Superguide takes an in-depth look at all the functions of OS X Leopard, and provides an easy to follow, step-by-step format for Mac users of all levels.

“Mac OS X Hints, Leopard Edition” is the seventh release in the Superguide series. Other Superguides currently available for sale include:
